Privacy policy

As a rule, it is possible to use our website without providing personal data. Insofar as personal data (e.g. name, address or email addresses) is collected on our pages, this is always done, as far as possible, on a voluntary basis. This data will not be passed on to third parties without your express consent.

We would like to point out that data transmission over the internet (e.g. when communicating by email) may have security gaps. It is not possible to provide seamless protection of data from access by third parties. The use of contact data published in accordance with the imprint obligation by third parties for sending unsolicited advertising and information materials is hereby expressly prohibited. The site operator expressly reserves the right to take legal action in the event of unsolicited advertising information being sent, for example by spam e-mails.
